The republican electors of the town of Harmony are requested to meet at the house of John Young, on Friday, Sept. 12th, at 2 o'clock P. M., for the purpose of appointing delegates to the Senatorial, Assembly and County Conventions. By order of the committee. P. SCHMITZ, Chairman.

The Situation.

The rebels, reported from 40,000 to 100,000 strong, are advancing across Maryland, and it is doubtful whether they intend to strike at Baltimore or invade Pennsylvania. The latter is the more prevalent opinion. What force has been sent against them from Washington is not known to the public. Cincinnati is threatened by Kirby Smith, who is reported to have a large force. Ample preparations are being made to meet him. He may turn from his course and attempt to cross the Ohio above Cincinnati.

It is reported that Gen. Buell has retreated from the neighborhood of Chattanooga to Nashville, where he has been joined by Gen. Rosecrans. They will move against the rebels threatening Cumberland Gap and northern Kentucky.

Indian Troubles Caused by Traitors.

The simultaneous disturbances which have broken out among the Indians throughout the whole northwestern frontier is evidence that they have been the result of a single cause. This is the opinion of the settlers where these troubles have occurred. As yet the grounds for this opinion, other than the uniformity in time of the outbreaks, have not been gathered, but the evidence begins to make its appearance.

The Shawano County Journal, in the northern part of this state, has a report of a council held by the Menomonee Indians, at Keshena, on the 28th ult., which gives some startling developments.

It says that the Indians were inclined to keep friendly upon our frontiers, and that the head chief, the war chief, and ten other chiefs of bands were present, and made speeches or addresses.

One of them said that all the tribes in Wisconsin had sent their wampum to the chief of the Winnebagoes, except they (the Menomonees), and that the latter had been notified that the last offer had been made to them to send their wampum. Notice was also sent that "the blow was to be struck this summer!" That all of the tribes east of the Mississippi were governed by the Winnebago chief, and had communication through him with the south. It was also said that the Indians were selling their ponies to purchase ammunition with.

One of the Indians in this council said the Winnebago chief told him that "all the western tribes were going to join the south!"

The head chief professed a desire to remain at peace with the whites. The second made false assurances. The war chief the same.

The Madison Journal says: We have evidence which more directly brings home to the South the responsibility of this atrocious plot. It is found in a letter from a Lieut. Colonel of Ashby's rebel cavalry in Virginia to his brother-in-law Mr. Robert Miles, of Columbus, in this state, which was received about the 25th of August.

In this letter Mr. Miles was advised by his Southern relative to get down into Virginia, within the Confederate lines, if he could—the ways and means for doing which were pointed out. If he could not do this he was advised to go into Illinois for safety. The writer stated that there would be a general uprising of the Indians throughout the Northwest about the first of September, and while they might do no harm as far down in Wisconsin as the place of his friend's residence, in order to make sure of being beyond danger he had better go down into central Illinois.

While the rebels do not scruple to employ Indian savages to butcher indiscriminately our people, why should our government hesitate a moment to organize, arm and direct the slaves to fight their rebel masters in arms? No good reason has ever been offered. It is monstrous folly on our part that we do not do it, and comes from the degrading servitude which enthral northern politicians in the support of slavery. This infernal institution should die immediately if we desire victory to our arms. So long as the government hesitates to strike the blow, so long will our country be deluged in blood. We of the northwest, in view of the Indian massacres which have taken place and which are likely to be repeated, demand of the President that he use his power, without delay, to crush the strength of the rebellion, by using the slaves for the security and perpetuation of freedom rather than permitting them longer to be the main support of the rebellion.

It is not known who commands the army which everybody supposes has been sent into Maryland to attack the rebels. McClellan is said to be absent from Washington, and we may suppose that he is the man. There is one thing about it which is consoling, the rebel policy must be activity. They cannot afford to stop long enough for McClellan to commence digging and reviewing again. So we may look for a more lively campaign than that of last fall.

Last Night's Report.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5. Special to New York Tribune.—A flag of truce went to Centerville yesterday for the purpose of recovering the body of Lieut. Fessenden, Senator Fessenden's son, which was buried there by the surgeon in whose charge he was when he died. The body was found without difficulty and brought to Washington, and is now in the hands of the surgeon.

The Confederates appeared to be greatly elated at learning that the son of a leading republican senator from New England had been killed.

They inquired whether it was the son of representative or senator Fessenden, and on learning the fact did not conceal their gratification. From what those who accompanied the flag of truce saw and heard, they gathered that our wounded were lying on the field of battle with the unburied dead, and were seriously suffering for want of food as well as pain of their wounds. It is understood that a flag of truce has gone to the battle field to obtain the wounded still remaining there.

Dr. Cutter reproaches Chief Medical Director Guild, and other rebel officers, in the bitterest terms for leaving our poor men for three days without food or even water, and warned them that this unheard of barbarity should be faithfully reported to our Surgeon General. The wounded were left lying where they fell, surrounded by putrefying corpses, exposed to all inclemencies of the weather, their wounds not even moistened, nor a cup of cold water put to lips which were swollen and blackened by three days fever.

The inhumanity of the enemy went so far, that they supplied our Surgeons with neither food, stimulants, lint, bandages, nor operating instruments for thirty-six hours. Dr. Cutter was not even permitted to give his professional services to the wounded.

Gen. Kearney's body was brought to the Rebel headquarters at 11 o'clock p. m. on the day he fell. Some of our officers were informed that papers had been found on the body, and would be returned with it. There are other reasons for thinking that robbery of valuables from the General's person was not known at the Rebel headquarters.

The horses of Stuart's cavalry are described as being very fine, most of them showing the marks of high breeding, and Stuart's troops are a stalwart, dashing set of young fellows, most of whom furnish and equip their own horses, and ride to perfection. The baggage and artillery horses, however, are represented as being reduced to skeletons after their severe campaign, and the enemy had only four of these animals to pull a gun to which we attach six.

The Rebels claim to have captured 22 pieces of cannon in the engagements on Friday and Saturday. They say they sent 1,200 prisoners to Harper's Ferry. They express the bitterest feeling towards Pope and Butler. Neither of whom, they say, shall hereafter have a moment's rest while they have power to annoy them.

Gen. Stevens' death was caused by a ball passing through his temple, while gallantly leading his regiments. Simeon Draper, on behalf of the citizens of New York, offered to pay the expenses of transportation, but the mayor of Boston requested the privilege of doing so, inasmuch as Gen. Stevens was a native of Massachusetts.

This privilege being granted him he assumed all the expenses, and attended to all the necessary arrangements. Just before Gen. Stevens' death, his son and aid, Hazard, on receiving a wound exclaimed, "Father, I am wounded!" Gen. Stevens replied, "Well, son, I have no time to take care of you now," and turning to a soldier, said, "Corporal, send my boy home."

At the moment of attacking Gen. Stevens sent back for support. His aid applied to several generals, who answered that they had other duties, but when he came to Kearney, that lamented general said, "I won't refuse to stand by Stevens."

It is believed that Gen. Burnside, who has shown more ability than any of our eastern generals in reaping victories with raw troops, will be assigned to an important command, composed in part of the new levies which are concentrating at Washington. His old troops will also probably form a part of his command, and Gen. Reno and Gen. Parke, the latter of whom is now his chief of staff, will remain with him.

It was wished that Gens. Mitchell and Fremont, who also have the same faculty as Burnside of changing raw recruits into veterans in a very short time, could be assigned similar commands. Two of Gen. Burnside's old divisions, Reno's and Parke's, will also be with him.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 8. A special correspondent of the Press in this city, returned from Sykesville, Md., says that he had just left Monrovia, Md., on account of the approach of the rebels. A party of their cavalry entered that place on Sunday.

Many speculations are rife as to the relative movements, intents and purposes of Stonewall Jackson. Some say he is on his way to Gettysburg, Pa., so as to be within striking distance of Chambersburg or York, and that he is already near Hanover, while others assert that he has marched to Westminister, and will move on Baltimore in that direction. Others assert that the latter movement is merely a feint to cover his entrance into Pennsylvania.

Correspondence of the N. Y. Tribune.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4. From an officer of high rank in General Sigel's army, who has just arrived here wounded, I gather the following facts, which seem to me important enough to report.

The first fact is that Sigel, on Tuesday, the 26th of August, gave notice to General Pope that the advances guard of the enemy had passed through Thoroughfare Gap, and that the main body of the army was at White Plains and Salem—his rear at Orleans. This was the first authentic information received by Pope, and by this information the army was saved.

The second fact is that Gen. Sigel did all within his power to induce Gen. Pope to change his front, in order to throw his whole force from Warrenton, Greenwich, and Warrenton Junction to Gainesville, for the purpose of breaking the enemy's lines, and to attack Jackson in the rear. Pope adopted this maneuver, and Jackson would have been lost if the different commanders had acted promptly and in conjunction.

The third fact is that Sigel engaged the enemy, consisting of the corps of Jackson, Ewell and Hill, for eight hours, and that the battle (so says Sigel himself) would have been won if McDowell had not been attacked the enemy on the left, and Porter on the right. But McDowell appeared at 6 o'clock p. m. in the front, and Porter did not take part in the fight at all. And even on the next day these corps did not perform the requested movements. Pope delayed his attack till three o'clock in the afternoon, and this delay gave the enemy time to throw his main force from his left wing to the right. Of this movement Gen. Pope was informed by Sigel, who had anticipated an attack from that side, and who had sent the 3rd New York Cavalry on a reconnoissance.

These facts are important. I am given to understand that they can be substantiated if contradicted.

CAIRO, Sept. 9.

Thirteen refugees from Fayette county, Ala., arrived last evening. They left about ten days since, and by traveling nights and lying by in the daytime, they succeeded, after much tribulation, in reaching the federal lines, where they took the oath of allegiance and received a passport for Cairo. They say the conscription act is clearing the country of men between the ages of 16 and 45, and that immense numbers are being sent to the Confederate army.

The Confederate prisoners from Chicago left for Vicksburg this evening, conveyed by a train and a gunboat.

A soldier returned from Corinth to-day reports that the railroad between that place and Iuka is in the possession of the rebels.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.

The Star says yesterday afternoon two companies of the 3d Indiana cavalry under Major Chapman, went to Poolesville, where they found in possession of a rebel cavalry regiment, who had planted on a hill to the right of the town one field piece, which was opened on our men as they approached. The command did not stop but made a charge through the town. The enemy was then skedaddling and forming a line of battle near their gun. In a few moments reinforcements came up, two pieces of artillery, and several companies of the 8th Illinois cavalry, and our guns after a few shots succeeded in silencing the enemy's pieces, when another charge was made by Major Chapman's command, and the rebels broke and fled, leaving several dead on the field. Our loss is one man killed.

CHAMBERSBURG, Pa., Sept. 8. One of our scouts reached Hagerstown, Maryland, last night, having left Middle-town, eighteen miles southeast of that place, at 5 p. m. He reported that the rebels were at Hagerstown in considerable force, and advancing. The rolling stock of the railroad had been removed from Hagerstown. The telegraph office there is evacuated.

St. PAUL, Sept. 8. Mayor Prince arrived last night with despatches from Fort Ridgely. Thursday 4th Capt. Grant and Anderson with a small party of infantry and cavalry, were attacked by 250 savages eighteen miles from Fort Ridgely. During the engagement the whites managed to throw up breastworks of dead horses and earth, and held out until Col. Sibley came to their relief, and drove the Indians back.

Thirteen whites were killed and forty-seven wounded. None of the wounded were from St. Paul. Before the engagement Capt. Grant's party buried eighty-five of the massacred. The body of one woman had lain in the woods two weeks unburied.

Capt. Vanderhook, commanding at Fort Abercrombie, writes that a large number of Indians had appeared around the fort and carried off all the government mules and cattle belonging to the post, and was compelled to keep his force on guard all night. He also says that unless reinforcements appear soon he will be compelled to abandon the post.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9. Special to Chicago Tribune.—One thing yet remains involved in doubt, which must be cleared up, before an intelligent opinion can be formed as to the purposes of the rebels in Maryland. No one can yet tell whether the rebels have crossed heavy forces into Maryland, or whether they have only sent one or two divisions over, while moving the greater portion of their troops nearer Washington. Opinions here have generally settled down into the belief that if only 15,000 to 20,000 or 40,000 have crossed, they are merely there for the purpose of securing large supplies of provisions and other stores, of which they stand in need, while they may hope also to draw off a sufficient large number of our troops from Washington to enable the main body to make an effective attack here. On the other hand, if they have taken the greater portion of their army into Maryland, they have chosen an admirable position for concealing their real intentions.

News from Frederick to-day indicates that at any rate the rebels are improving their time by laying in a heavy stock of provisions and cooking the country for horses, hogs, wheat, corn, and hurrying at night to collect back over the Potomac, and within their Virginia lines. The seem to have dropped the specious pretense with which they started out, of paying for whatever they wanted in United States treasury notes. Now they either pay in Virginia bills or Confederate scrip, or refuse to pay anything at all.

Colonel Sol. Meredith, of Indiana, whose ribs were broken by a fall from his horse, shot under him in the recent Bull Run battle, is rapidly recovering. In the late retreat from Centerville our medical department lost forty-five wagon loads of medicines and liquors, including one whole wagon load of Port wine. The enemy were thus enabled to take much better care of their wounded than could otherwise have been possible.

Stories brought by countrymen to-night from Leesburg, are to the effect that scarcely any rebel troops remain there now. The Baltimore & Ohio railroad company have lost no rolling stock thus far from the rebel movements across the line of their road. Artillery firing was heard up the Potomac, beyond Poolesville, this afternoon.

A private in Col. Williams' new Michigan regiment was shot from the ranks this evening by a couple of secessionists, while the regiment was marching by the penitentiary, inside of the city limits. The secessionists were arrested. Let us see if they have courage to hang them.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.

Special to N. Y. Tribune.—An interesting interview took place at Centerville Sunday evening, between Gens. Sigel, Milroy, Carl Schurz and Capt. Rosley, when the affairs of the army were freely discussed. Gen. Sigel said distinctly that he was going to Washington to tell Mr. Lincoln that in his opinion Gen. McDowell was a traitor, and he could not serve under him any longer. He (Sigel) felt that he was not wanted there; that he was in the way of both Pope and McDowell, leaving the impression upon his hearers that he would resign if not placed in charge of an independent command.

Special to the N. Y. Times.—On Friday Gen. Pope asked to be relieved from his command, and his request was granted. He at once preferred charges against Fitz John Porter, Franklin and Griffin, for refusing to obey orders during the recent engagements, thereby causing the defeat. A court martial was ordered, and his first department yesterday morning, at judge advocate Major Gen. Caldwell, the board. On account of Gen. Mansfield's absence, and that of Gen. Porter, who was first to be tried, the board adjourned till Monday at 11 a. m. Gen. Mansfield is expected from Fortress Monroe to-day. Porter's corps has been consolidated with that of Gen. Heintzelman's.

LEAVENWORTH, Sept. 9.

Saturday night, Quantill, with a force variously estimated at from 500 to 1,000 men, entered Olathe, Johnson county, Kansas, and at latest accounts, still held the place. Several stores were robbed, the office of the Mirror newspaper demolished, and fifty recruits for Kansas regiments captured.

Gov. Robinson has issued a proclamation calling upon all citizens of the state to organize and arm for home defense. He says one half the militia of the state have entered the United States service.

Intelligence from Dacotah and the upper Missouri indicates serious Indian hostilities. Gov. Jayne, of Dacotah, issued a proclamation on the 30th ult., calling on the settlers to organize. Two men, Judge Amidon and his son, had already been killed. Gen. Blunt received a dispatch yesterday from Gov. Jayne, dated Sioux City, Sept. 6, which says the Indians made an attack that morning within three miles of Yankton, the capital of the territory. The courier bringing the dispatch to Sioux City, with an escort of ten men, had a fight with twenty Indians ten miles from Yankton. The Governor calls for a regiment and arms and ammunition, as a general Indian war is feared.

VINCENNES, Sept. 9.—A special train conveying the 98th Illinois regiment Col. Funkhouser, on route for Louisville, was thrown from the track at Bridgeport, Ill., on the Ohio and Mississippi railroad, about 9 o'clock last night, causing the instant death of five soldiers, and severely wounding thirty or forty more. Some of them will not recover. Capt. O. L. Kelley, of Effingham county, Ill., was among the killed, and the sufferers were principally of his company.

To-Day's Report.

The department of the northwest, to which Maj. Gen. Pope has been assigned, includes Wisconsin, Iowa, Minnesota, Nebraska and Dacotah, with the troops raising and to be raised there under his command, his headquarters being at St. Paul.

FORRESTER MONROE, Sept. 7.

The 18th of Sept. has been appointed by Jeff. Davis as a day of fasting and prayer, by a proclamation given at Richmond the 4th inst., inviting the people of the Confederate states to assemble for worship, to render praise to God for the triumph at Richmond and Manassas. The same paper claims the victory of Thursday, Friday and Saturday's battles, and says Lee's headquarters were at Anandale, eight miles from Alexandria, and also says it is now one week since our last battles and the public has no information of the particulars. Parties of wounded are daily arriving at Richmond from Manassas, and have no where to go and no one to care for them.

The Richmond Dispatch of Sept. 4th calls on the Confederate congress to extend the most vigorous measures for executing the conscript act, so as to call into the field immediately all able-bodied men between 18 and 45, to enable them to at once push their line of battle into the heart of the enemy's position.

The flag of truce in returning met a rebel gunboat this side of Harrison's Landing, returning towards Richmond. About twenty ladies came down from Richmond, going north. It is talked in Richmond that the new Merrimack is a failure, but is completed.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.

Correspondent of Morning Journals.—Flag Officer Dupont reports that there are no rebel soldiers on the northern coast so far as he can discover.

The officers of the Rhode Island, which has just arrived from the south, confirms the general truth of this statement. The inference is that every armed man has been sent to swell the armies to invade the north.

Lt. J. K. Kittredge, commanding squadron blockading Annapolis, has made a report to the navy department of his recent attempt to drive the rebels from Annapolis and Corpus Christi Bay, in Texas. He announces the capture of the rebel armed vessel Breaker, and also the destruction of the rebel armed schooner Elmer, and sloop Hannah. The day succeeding the encounter with these vessels, he landed at Corpus Christi, under a flag of truce, and had an interview with Maj. Leitch, in command of the rebels, and Judge Gilpin, chief justice of the county, of whom he demanded the evacuation of the town by the military, adding if they refused it would be necessary to remove the women and children, as he should open fire. The rebels asked for 48 hours in which to consider the proposition, which was granted.

This time they used in erecting batteries from which they fired upon our vessels. The fire was returned with spirit and their batteries soon silenced, but as soon as the firing ceased on our side they reopened on us. The firing was kept up for two or three days when the rebels, having been scattered by our fire retreated to the plains. Rebel reinforcements, however, approaching, and our ammunition being nearly exhausted, it was deemed best not to pursue our advantage, for the purpose of repairing the slight damage done our vessels and get a supply of ammunition that a more vigorous attack might be made. Our loss was one killed none wounded.

HARRISBURG, Sept. 9.

A rebel deserter who arrived at Hanover, reports the rebels at Frederick 100,000 strong. No important intelligence has been received from Hanover or any point on the Northern Central railroad.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 10.

Business is again suspended to-day. All military organizations were ordered to report for service at eight this morning. Three thousand laborers have been ordered into trenches. Military authorities received information, late last night, that the enemy was advancing in force. General Pope and staff arrived yesterday.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

New York, Sept. 10.

New Orleans papers of the 1st report that an expedition under Col. Thomas, along the coast, routed a band of guerrillas, captured 1500 oxen and horses, three guerrillas, and other cattle. Three of our men were wounded and one guerrilla killed.

According to a correspondent of a Mobile paper, writing from Jackson, Mississippi, much concern was felt there that the federalists would capture a large wagon train sent to Hindman. Our cavalry were in pursuit of it on the 20th ult.

There was considerable excitement among the rebels in expectation that the rebel ship Yarrow, on the Yazoo river, where several gunboats were nearly completed, might be destroyed. The steamer Yerville was fired into by guerrillas about sixty miles above New Orleans. Guerrillas had captured two coasting schooners.

An old soldier, formerly under Andrew Jackson, refused to give up his old musket and was sentenced to thirty days imprisonment, but Gen. Butler promptly remitted the sentence. The General's headquarters and adjacent stables were burned on the 31st ult. The Delta, noticing the close of summer, states that the health of the city had been unimpaired, and congratulates the citizens on the entire absence of yellow fever.

New York, Sept. 10.

Correspondence city journals.—The 2d regiment lost three men and twenty horses. The rebels crossed the Potomac, Thursday last, at the Monocacy, from which point they swept down the Maryland shore below the ford and forries opposite Leesburg, driving before them small squads of cavalry, which were watching the river.

The enemy had advanced on Friday to Poolesville, and moved out in force on this side. There were part of three companies of the 1st Mass. cavalry in their front. Observing the rebels approach, they formed in front by platoons, and by their steadiness of front and skillful disposition, delayed the rebel advance for hours, and finally Gen. Lee sent nine miles to the rear for artillery to disperse the force he supposed to be in front of him. Before the artillery arrived our men were of course compelled to retire, and as soon as their movement in column detected the weakness of their force, the rebel cavalry gathered heart and came on at the charge. It was two to one, and there was nothing for it but to get off as rapidly as possible.

The road had been clear in the morning, and was counted on for unobstructed retreat, but while the maneuvering in front had consumed the day, some Maryland traitor had piled stones at the worst places in the road in such quantities that the horses at a gallop could not fail to go down. Enveloped in clouds of dust, the head of the retreating column came down the road at full speed and plunging into the rocks men and horses together fell in confusion, and piled over one another in heaps.

The rebels were close upon them, and those who were down could but surrender. The rebels began firing into and sabering the prostrate men. Some of them were crushed under their struggling horses. Capt. Chamberlain, whose horse had fallen upon him shouted to the rebel leader that his men were helpless, and the firing was ordered to cease. Capt. Matly and Capt. Wells with most of their men escaped. Capt. Chamberlain with about twenty men were captured. All were liberated next day on parole. Gen. Lee made them a speech advising them never to take arms again to subjugate the south, declaring that there are and must be two confederacies on this continent. Capt. Chamberlain had a long conversation with Fitzhugh Lee and Stewart and reports that their cavalry force is very large.

Poolesville citizens fired from their houses along the streets on the retreating cavalry. The rebels considering Maryland as a part of Jeff. Davis' dominions, treat all Union citizens as traitors, and at the same time levy contributions upon them as enemies.

New York, Sept. 10. Flour receipts 14,808 bbls. Market 60 better. Sales 10,000 bbls, at 5,00a20 for super western; 5,35a5,50 for common to medium extra western.

Wheat receipts, 281,374 bushels. Market heavy, and 1a2c lower. Sales 80,000 bushels, at 1,07a1,15 for Chicago spring, 1,10a1,17 for Milwaukee club.

"TAKING GOALS TO NEWCASTLE."—We are reminded of this saying when we see agents from eastern nurseries, selling trees in such a town as Janesville, surrounded as it is by large and extensive nurseries containing everything that is desirable in the fruit and ornamental line. Persons in want of trees would consult their own interest by paying occasional visits during the summer season to the nurseries in this vicinity, where they can see for themselves the kinds and varieties of fruit, ornamental and shrub trees that are adapted to the soil and climate of the west. When will people cease to be humbugged by purchasing the Lilliputian plants from the east at outrageous prices, whose only merit is "far fetched and dear bought?" Who knows when buying eastern trees that they are adapted to this climate? Take, for instance, the article of grapevine; how is a novice in such matters to know whether it is hardy or is free from mildew or not? or whether it will ripen in this climate till he has tested it? Now there are all about us cultivators who are giving their whole time and attention to testing the adaptation of every kind of tree and plant to this country. We would advise persons desirous of procuring trees to consult such persons instead of buying of eastern dealers. It is estimated that in each of the counties in this state there is sold of trees from eastern nurseries, over one hundred thousand dollars worth annually; it is well known by all that of all the plantings of former years not one per cent is now alive.

DONATION OF WISCONSIN TO THE CHICAGO SANITARY COMMISSION.—The Chicago Journal says: The following letter has been received by the Sanitary Commission from His Excellency Edward Salomon, Governor of the state of Wisconsin. It well illustrates the generosity and patriotism of our noblest state, and the prompt and thoughtful care of its popular executive. The compliment to the Sanitary Commission, conveyed by the flattering terms in which the letter is couched, cannot but be most gratifying to the Commission and its co-operating friends:

STATES OF WISCONSIN, Executive Department, Madison, Wis., Sept. 10, 1862. Hon. Mark Skinner, President of Chicago Sanitary Commission, Chicago:

DEAR SIR:—I observe by the articles published in various papers lately, that your Association is in need of funds to aid you in your work. Having a fund placed at my disposal by the Legislature of this state for the relief of our Wisconsin soldiers, and being thoroughly assured of the great benefits which have already accrued to our Wisconsin soldiers from your operations, and the impartial manner in which those operations are extended to the troops from every state, on the requisition of the surgeons in general and regimental hospitals, I hereby authorize you to draw at sight upon me as Governor of Wisconsin for a sum not to exceed $1,000, as your Association may need to supply the pressing wants of the sick and wounded troops.

Yours very respectfully, EDWARD SALOMON, Governor.

Accounts from Minnesota and Nebraska represent that the Indians continue their depredations. It is now quite certain that we must expect a general war with them. As there is no African in the way of this fight, we hope to see it done up with energy, and the job so well finished that the red men will not trouble this nor the next generation.

Referee's Sale of the Heloit and Madison Railroad.

In the Circuit Court of Green County, State of Wisconsin, on change of venue from Rock County. The Helena and Madison Railroad Company, and George C. The Tableau at Lappin's Hall.

The entertainment at Lappin's Hall, last evening, gotten up for the purpose of providing funds for procuring supplies for our sick and wounded soldiers, was very successful in all respects, notwithstanding it was the result of less than a week's preparation. The tableaux, choruses, songs and music were all creditable to the performers, and the large audience, which nearly filled hall and gallery, were so well pleased, that another entertainment of a similar character was called for, and we understand will come off in a week or two. As this species of public amusement was an experiment with our people, there was, perhaps, some little anxiety about its success, but it is demonstrated now that the ladies and gentlemen who took part in the performances last evening, have the tact and ability to please the public in this way, and that Janesville can hereafter depend upon home talent for an evening's pastime, in the dramatic and musical way.

The receipts, over expenses, we learn, amount to about $140, which is quite a handsome addition to the means of the society, for the benefit of our suffering soldiers in the hospitals.

New Firm.

In our advertising columns may be found the card of Messrs. Brand & Hornick, cabinet makers, upholsters and undertakers, who have taken the old establishment of R. Brand & Co. They are good mechanics, supervise or do their own work themselves, and are the right kind of men to deal with. We commend them to the patronage of the public, as worthy of their share of business in this line.

The Blood is the Life.

No more shall the poor sufferers in our country languish, their constitutions racked and torn by strong and dangerous mineral medicines; they will come to the fountain of health, found in simple herbs and roots from nature's storehouse. JUDSON'S MOUNTAIN HERB PILLS, of innocent mountain plants composed, will reach and stop their distress, and break the blood, renewed and cleansed, to carry through the body the elements of health; build up the broken constitution, and carrying life and health, where but for them would have been the wreck of hope—the feeble mind of suffering, at last restored by the cold hand of death. Do not let this precious opportunity pass by; do not let your dearest ones try every thing else, prevent you from trying these Pills to be sure must be pure, and then sickness is impossible. What a great and yet simple truth is this! It appeals to the common sense of all. It is the great revelation of the healing art. JUDSON'S MOUNTAIN HERB PILLS will purify and cleanse the system as the sun will rid the clouds.

Judson's Mountain Herb Pills are sold by all Medicine Dealers.
